

COAR Members to the Community: We're Here

Technically, a member of the Central Oregon Association of REALTORS® (COAR) is a licensed real estate agent that agrees to abide by a Code of Ethics or an affiliate in a real estate related industry. In reality, COAR members are your rock during real estate negotiations, baseball coaches, yoga teachers, your neighbors, fundraisers, hardworking volunteers and tireless advocates for the dream of homeownership. Very few community projects lack a COAR member helping to pull some of the weight. So, being a member is more than the technical details, it is being a part of an industry at the heart of the community.

Throughout 2017, members will be using the hastags #WeReHere and #COAREALTORS as they help make Central Oregon a great community for all that live here. For more information on COAR's community involvement programs, market statistics to search for properties, a REALTOR® or an affiliate please visit COAREALTORS.com.

"I love being able to help newcomers to Central Oregon understand and adopt the "Bend" attitude of friendliness, togetherness and acceptance.

Often the reward is in the smiles on the faces of those I'm able to help become part of, or continue their relationship with, Central Oregon. There's also something fulfilling when I'm able to help someone move toward new goals, even if it means they are leaving Central Oregon behind.

Finally, I love the heart that our REALTOR® members put into their work on behalf of those who want to share Central Oregon with us. I like to think that we model the behavior and enthusiasm that reflects the Central Oregon lifestyle."
